MINISTRY OF INFORMATION & BROADCASTINGRESOLUTIONNew Delhi, the 3rd December, 1960*

No. 3/43/60-EI.—The Government of India in the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting having considered a suggestion that cash prizes awarded to the producers and directors of films winning the State Awards may be given in the form of National Plan Savings Certificates and Treasury Savings Deposit Certificates and consulted the Film Federation of India, have resolved to accept the suggestion.

2. Government have also resolved to broadbase the constitution of the Central and Regional Committees of State Awards so as to ensure adequate representation of persons conversant with each language in which films are to be examined by these Committees.

3. With a view to giving effect to the above resolutions, the Rules concerning the State Awards for films notified in the Resolution of the Government of India in the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting No. 21/11/59-FC(FI), dated the 27th November, 1959 are hereby amended as follows, namely:—

(1) The present rule 2 will be re-numbered as sub-rule (1) and the following will be added as sub-rule (2), namely:—

"2 (2) Government may, at its discretion, give the cash prizes in the form of National Plan Savings Certificates and Treasury Savings Deposit Certificates."

(2) The following will be substituted for rule 17, namely:—

"17. Notwithstanding anything contained in rules 12 and 16, Government may co-opt on the Central or a Regional Committee, such number of additional members as may, in its opinion, be considered necessary to ensure adequate availability of members knowing each language in which films are to be adjudged by such Committee. Further, nothing contained in rules 14, 15 and 20 shall preclude co-option of an additional member or members to assist the Documentary Committee, Educational Committee or the Special Committee constituted for the initial examination of children's films. The members so co-opted shall have all the rights of an ordinary member."

(3) The following will be substituted for rule 22, namely:—

"22. The quorum of the Central, Documentary, Educational, the Special Committee (if any), for Children's Films, or a Regional Committee, shall be half the total number of members including the co-opted members."

ORDERED that the Resolution be published in the Gazette of India for general information.
